

EASEMENT ESSENTIALS WORKSHOP

FOR PROJECT MANAGERS AND CONSERVATION EASEMENT SPECIALISTS

JOIN OUR EVENT

Please join our team of conservation partners to learn the responsibilities of a project manager or easement specialist to complete a conservation easement. Regional experts will provide the basic information to identify the required documents, transactions, expenses, and stewardship activities plus how to manage partner and landowner expectations. A comparison of easement funding programs with application steps will be discussed. Day one will be a presentation of various project components followed by day two (optional) of field application.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Staff of conservation organizations and private individuals with a formal background in biology, range management, soil science, etc., who want to learn more about how to execute a project application for a conservation easement.

REGISTER FOR FREE

Registration is free thanks to the generous support of PLJV-ConocoPhillips Capacity Grant, Ranchland Trust of Kansas, The Nature Conservancy, Kansas Alliance for Wetlands and Streams, and The Conservation Fund.

Registration deadline is May 5, 2023.

TRAVEL AND HOTEL STIPEND

In an effort to cultivate and train potential, contract easement specialists across Kansas, a limited number of travel and hotel stipends are provided. Those with a formal background in wildlife biology, range management, soil science, etc., or another related field and whose workshop expenses are not reimbursed by an employer may apply. These stipends are on a first come, first serve basis and are limited. Please contact Lynn Gentine of Ranchland Trust of Kansas at lynn@kla.org or 785-817-1297 to learn more and request a stipend.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS

A hotel block has been reserved at the Hilton Garden Inn, Manhattan, Kansas, for May 18 and May 19 for $119/night plus tax. A reservation can be made for one or both nights. Reservations must be made by April 29, 2023, to receive the discounted room block rate.
