

Auction Items

1 & 2. Two canvas wrapped pieces by photographer Rachael Sebastian of Mira 3 Photography. Rachael is from Marysville, KS and has taken photographs on working ranches such as the 6666 Ranch and the Tongue River Ranch. The first image titled "Cowgirl Magic"

was taken in Natoma, KS. The second image was taken at Lazy Heart D Bison Ranch near Westmoreland, KS. These two images will be auctioned separately. (Donated by Andy and Sara Larson)

3. A collection of BBQ sauces and rubs from beef country. Representatives include Kansas City Joes, Authur Bryant, Plow Boys, Salt Creek Farm, Eat BBQ and BBQ Spot. It also includes tools, a grilling bib and a $100 gift certificate to Booth Creek Wagyu. A $250 value! (Donated by Gordon and Karen Hibbard and Booth Creek Wagyu)

4. A 24" x 32" framed canvas of this unique and intimate landscape in western Kansas. The photograph was taken by Bruce L. Hogle at Little Jerusalem Badlands State Park near Oakley, KS, in Logan County. The photographer looked up and saw this amazing cloud formation moving across the previously empty sky, which took his breath away. More details about the photograph can be found on the back of the framed canvas. (Donated by photographer Bruce L. Hogle)

6. Oil painting on paper by Robert Sudlow. Framed panoramic painting by artist Robert Sudlow. (Donated by Carolyn Gresser)

7. Four whiskey glasses and whiskey decanter. The winning bidder will get to customize these with etching of their choice, for example - brand, logo, last name or design of your choice. (Donated by Marybeth Kennedy)

8 & 9. Your choice! Two images framed in a repurposed farmhouse window from the Kirkwood Kreaions "through the farmhouse window" series. Winning bidder will get their choice, then auction the remaining image.

"A Final Farewell" - The sun sets low as cowboys complete the final drive, ending in one salute representing decades of Symphony Flint Hills grandeur. "Blue Indigo Sunset" - A blue indigo wildflower blooms at sunset as cattle graze behind - a serene Flint Hills scene displaying the Kansas beauty. (Donated by photographers Kevin & Julie Kirkwood, Kirkwood Kreaions)

10. "Serene Summer Sunset" - Cattle pens and a weathered loading chute stand quiet as the sun sets over a blooming field of snow-on-the-mountain wildflowers in Geary County. The vibrant sky paints streaks of gold, pink, and violet across the open prairie landscape. The image is size 12" x 16" and framed for a total size of 18" x 22". (Donated by photographer Mark Clarke)

11. "Breaking Through" - A 16" x 20" metal print taken by photographer Scott Bean in Pottawatomie County north of Manhattan. (Donated by photographer Scott Bean)

12. "Sun Rays" - Framed print by David Horner. (Donated by Kelly and Mary Lenz)

13. An 11" x 14" framed print of painting "New Beginning" by artist Jane Metz and a bottle of red wine with matching private label – valued at $425! (Donated by artist Jane Metz)

14. Ranch tour of the Jaw Bone Gulch Ranch in Laramie County, Wyoming, and two tickets to the Wyoming Stock Growers Land Trust (WSGLT) 25th anniversary celebration dinner in Cheyenne, WY, on Friday, August 22. The celebration includes a cocktail hour and live entertainment. In addition, golf for two at the Airport Golf Club in Cheyenne on Saturday morning, August 23, and WSGLT swag, plus a gift card to their favorite brewery, Westby Edge Brewing Company. Package valued at $420! Winning bidder will make their own travel arrangements. (Donated by our partners and friends at Wyoming Stock Growers Land Trust)
